Toy Report:

All it will take is one toy per month from all members to make a substantial gift for Christmas.

PLEASE consider spending some time this year in order to give something back to the community, bring a smile to a child's face, and spread some much needed joy in the world.

Old Business:

The club needs a program director. We need people and ideas for our monthly programs. Please step up and volunteer.

New Business:

Bill Powell made contact with Dave James at advantage lumber. He was happy that we contacted him about a visit to his business. He suggested that we come on Wednesday May 17 at 4 pm, because they are having a swap meet for woodworkers (buy sell trade) all clubs are invited they are serving dinner to all who attend (burgers and dogs). Wood worker members are encouraged to bring unwanted tools that they want to part with to the swap meet setup will be at 4 pm at advantage lumber. 7524 Commerce Pl, Sarasota, FL 34243.

There will be a signup sheet at May's meeting. Also, any discussion about the outing can be discussed at that time.

Buy Sell or Trade:

Rick Ward still has raised panel doors of various sizes.

Bill Dixon –free cherry cabinet doors. Contact Bill

Send Bill Dixon an email describing what you want to sell and pictures if possible.

Refreshments:

Snacks were provided by John Sheldon Thanks John

Programs:

Bruce gave a very interesting demonstration of how to make your own custom acrylic pen blanks.

You can make custom blanks with just about anything small enough to encapsulate in acrylic and turn it to make pens. He got many thank you from the members in attendance.

For the May meeting we are going to have a surprise presentation.

Show and Tell

Show & tell we had 7 entrants. Bill Dixon won the $10 gift card and Charlie King won the $15 Gift card.

Bill shows a pizza cutter with a Celtic knot embedded in the handle.

Rick with a coffee mill he turned.

Charlie Mays shows us some of the many toys he has made for the kids.

John shows us his knife kit he is going to assemble.

Charlie shows us some of the many segmented bowls he made as gifts.

Bryce with the sign he made for the zoo.

Bill Reasoner made these toys for the kids.
