Greetings Woodworkers,

Bill Dixon said that his niece and he have started the redesign of the web site. As of the first of August it is almost done. It is functional

I want to thank Ruth, Holly, Bruce, and Frank for their input to the newsletter.

Fair Report:

Art Falcone reminded us to get started on next year's entry for the fair, never too soon to get started.

A new category has been opened for judging "String Musical Instruments" There will be 6 sub categories under the string instruments. The entry fee for entering your project for judging has been raised from 2 to 3 dollars this year.

A local wood worker has agreed to be the judge for 2016 fine furniture judging. It is Sean McKenzie and he has agreed to take what the fair pays for judges.
