Brandon Workers Club Newsletter for September 2016

Presidents section

Greetings Woodworkers, President Ruth East brought the meeting to order at 6:30 PM and welcomed everyone to the August meeting. We had no visitors tonight.

Membership:

We have 51 paid members. Dues are $25.00 per year for a family membership. See Frank to join.

Library:

John reported nothing new with the library.

Newsletter/web site:

Bill Dixon reported nothing new with the newsletter.

To view the web site hold down your control key on the key board and left click the following link.

Fair Report:

Art Falcone & Jim Ethington reported all is progressing well with the new management. There will be some changes in the display cases in order to see the string instruments easier.

Art also reported we have several pieces on display in the Brandon Library from 6-8 of our members. The library is located on Vandenberg just off of Parsons. Take a look and see.

Art did ask all members to start preparing for next year's fair and start working on your projects NOW!

Old Business:

There was no old business.

New Business:

Our Christmas Party will be at Golden Corral Dec 13 2016 at 6:30 P.M.

With our fun filled Chinese gift exchange.

It was suggested that we wait until October to re-evaluate; summer months are typical times for people to go on

Buy Sell or Trade:

Rick Ward has a small size bench top drill press.

Butcher block and cabinet doors, magazines, and a Ryobi table saw

Gene Simmons has several things for sale and they are posted on the web site with pictures.

Send Bill Dixon an email describing what you want to sell and pictures if possible.

Refreshments:

Snacks were provided by John Sheldon. Thanks John you are doing a great job with both projects.

Programs:

The program for tonight was our own Jason who brought his extensive wood burning tools and showed us how to use them to create pictures in wood. October's program will be put on by Bruce Mosley on how to take pictures of your projects. He will take some photos of any small projects brought into the meeting.
