News Letter:

Your Newsletter editor recently changed jobs and as of February 17th 2014, I will be working nights. I will be unable to attend meetings unless I can get Tuesday as one of my nights off. I will have to see what happens.

50/50

Art sold 52 tickets tonight and the drawing was won by Jack Besavitch . He got $26.00 and the club got $26.00.

Show and Tell:

Dave Harrison, Jim Moorehead, Bill Dixon, Bill Brocksmith, Rick Ward, Lloyd Hart, and Bruce Woody had things for show n tell tonight. Please use the link supplied in the email delivering this newsletter to see the pictures of the show-n-tell.

Web Site:

We have another example of the benefit of our website. I got an email from Finishing Technologies Inc. requesting a link to their website from our website. I was able to get a large assortment of sandpaper including drum sander rolls for the club member's use. We handed them out at the January meeting. The web site is up to date and can be accessed from the link below.

Fair Report:

Art tells us the fair is just around the corner. We are assigned 2 days to cover the Fine furniture exhibits. Our club has been assigned Sunday and Monday 2/9 and 2/10. We provide support by answering questions from the public and security for the exhibits.

Art has mailed your tickets to get in the fair by now. If you are working a shift one of these days and have not received your tickets please get in touch with Art.

Old Business:

Charlie asked about the lactation stools. There was discussion about if we as a club was going to continue making them. The hospital's supply of wood was getting depleted. There was also discussion of the storage cabinet rebuild for our library books and cd's. Nothing was decided as of yet.

New Business

The officers for 2014 are as follows:

Bruce Woody- President

Art Falcone -vice president

John Jardin- Programs

Bill Dixon -newsletter/web site

Rick Ward -toy chairman

Frank McMullin-
secretary/Treasurer

Refreshments

John Shelton, again, provided a great selection of goodies.

BUY/SELL/TRADE

Tim will sell his multi tool Shop Smith.

Program Notes:

Carl Johnson Co-owner Franklin Street Woodworking gave the program for the January meeting. Kate Swan his pardoner is the Fine Furniture judge for the fair this year.

Carl gave a great and informative lecture of what judges look for in fine furniture. He went over form and function and gave us a very detailed explanation on how to get the most from your level of expertise. All in all a great program.
